This chapter presents clues that there is an invisible hierarchy of Reptilian relative races [Orion Rigelians, Orion Anunnaki and Sirians] that have been deeply involved with humanity—its origins as well as its destiny.

Connections that point to the presence of invisible races as well as their involvement with humans—is this chapter’s major theme. With new evidence about a Sirian presence on the planet, it’s possible that ENKI and EN.LIL, the Anunnaki/Reptilians who landed from Nibiru [and their descendants], are being set up as scapegoats to take the rap—for Earth’s involvement in a possible upcoming Galactic War. A Peter Farley quote that I added to Chapter 9 provides clues about a possible chain of manipulation:

...it is much simpler to control a race of people who are 3rd dimensional [humans] and believing that they are so, than it is to control a 5th dimensional race with 12th dimensional capabilities. The bullies of the Universe [Anunnaki] pick on the ‘younger’ kids.

Farley concludes that it’s the Anunnaki who are the bullies but evidence of a Sirian presence on the planet tells me that they are not acting alone.

Note: Sirians are 12th dimensional beings and Orions are 5th dimensional beings.

SIRIANS AND ANUNNAKI REPTILIANS

In his book, Return of the Serpents of Wisdom Mark Amaru Pinkham explains a Sirian connection when he describes their connection to Atlantis and the Freemasons:

Some interstellar serpents arrived in the Atlantic motherland from [...] Sirius, and brought to the Atlanteans the wisdom of awakening the serpent power through alchemy. Leading up to their arrival, the Sirians had become galactic guardians of the secrets of uniting the polarity. They were adept alchemists who sought to seed their alchemical wisdom to humanoids evolving in other parts of the galaxy. Their definitive symbol, which was a cosmic reflection of their spiritual accomplishments and alchemical knowledge, was comprised of three straight lines which together formed a triangle—sometimes with an all-seeing eye in the center [...]

According to legend, when the Sirians arrived on Earth, they oversaw the creation and expansion of the Atlantean arm of the Great White Brotherhood [...]. When Atlantis was later destroyed, their secrets and triangular emblem traveled to Egypt where they served the foundation for new lodges in North Africa. The Sirian symbol was later passed down within the European lodges of Freemasonry, such as the Illuminati, and later incorporated into the Seal of the United States of America.

SITCHEN ON EARTH’S GUARDIANS

Zecharia Sitchen’s Earth Chronicles contains a timeline showing Earth’s 35 million year-old history that begins with an etheric civilization being given the task of Earth guardianship—who “were to find physical guardians also.” The beginning of the timeline that I have reproduced here—leaves off at

The Freemason symbol of a triangle with an “all-seeing” eye in the center is described in Mark Amaru Pinkham’s Return of the Serpents of Wisdom as a Sirian symbol # 5576747

8 million years—right around the time that a primitive aquatic species starting to emerge from the oceans was discovered on the fourth planet of the Vega system—and identified as a guardian species who could become “physical guardians on Earth.”

Note: Questions for God will reveal that the etheric civilization that was given the task of Earth guardianship was the Sirian race. However, the “extra” physical race was not a directive from God. As readers will see in Sitchen’s timeline, the written history that Sitchen discovered is skewed to justify Sirian genetic experiments.

35 Million Years Ago

- Etheric intelligent civilization created and are designated the guardians of Earth, but they were to find physical guardians also.

26 Million Years Ago

- Dinoid (from Bellatrix system in the constellation of Orion) and Reptoid colonies (from one of the lesser known stars in the constellation of Sagittarius) arrive and inhabit Earth
 - Spiritual Hierarchies of Earth send much love to these colonies
 - Reptoid and Dinoids allow a mammalian species to evolve to sentiency. These mammals were called the pre-cataceans

- Pre-cataceans provide ample food for all 3 colonies in exchange for technology (which would in turn improve their production rate further)
- 3 civilizations coexist in harmony trading among one another for 8 million years, all 3 civilizations develop advanced forms of space/time travel
- The pre-cataceans develop their spiritual side extensively (psychic abilities, etc.)

10 Million Years Ago

- Dinoid /Reptoid Alliance (from Bellatrix) come to stop the cooperation with the pre-cataceans
- Bellatrix Dinoid /Reptoids believe they are superior and should therefore control all other beings.
- Over next 10,000 years the Earth Dinoids and Reptoids become more and more influenced by the Bellatrix Dinoid/Reptoid Alliance.
- Dinoid/Reptoids decide -during these 10,000 years- to destroy the entire pre-catacean race through various psychological war tactics
- Pre-cataceans sense this aggression (through their high psychic abilities) and realize the threat presented now by the Dinoid/Reptoid civilizations.

8 Million Years Ago

- Pre-cataceans decide to implode their fusion reactors located in the

Ural Mountain range (with the Earth Spiritual Hierarchies giving them the permission to do so) in a preemptive counter strike

- Pre-cataceans divide into two groups : 1 group evacuates out of our solar system (to the constellations of Pegasus and Cetus), and the other group begins to alter themselves physically so that they may enter the oceans and there find a haven. This transformation process occurs over a period of 4 million years and the Pre-cataceans become the present day cataceans (i.e. the dolphins and whales).
- Pre-cataceans then implode their fusion reactors, thus destroying

There are approximately 80 modern species in the order Cetacea [aka Catacea] including whales, dolphins and porpoises who are descendants of land-living mammals. Archaeologists in Pakistan have made recent discoveries that show stages in cetacean transition from land to sea #2276577.

98% of the Dinoid/Reptoid civilizations; the remaining 2% evacuated to the planet Maldek (a planet within our solar system).

Note: Questions for God reveal that Maldek and Marduk are the same planet—now existing only in 4D.

- With the Dinoid/Reptoid now no longer being present on Earth, the Earth Spiritual Hierarchies and the cataceans had to find a suitable guardian for the land. They searched the galaxy to a distance of approximately 80 light years from the Sun.
- After 2 to 3 million years of searching the galaxy, a primitive aquatic species that was starting to emerge from the oceans was discovered on the fourth planet of the Vega system. This species had creation myths, a language, as well as a hunting and gathering culture.
- The Spiritual Hierarchies of the Vega system were then asked if they would permit this particular species to be vastly altered genetically to accelerate their evolution so that they may become a guardian species. The Vega Spiritual Hierarchies agreed.

To check how much of this section of Sitchen's timeline is correct, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Were the Sirians the etheric civilization asked to guard Earth and its inhabitants?”

“No.”

“Do the civilizations who You have created need any intermediaries?”

“No.”

“Did the Sirians encourage the Bellatrix Dinoid /Reptoids to colonize?”

“Yes.”

“Is the guardianship story meant to camouflage?”

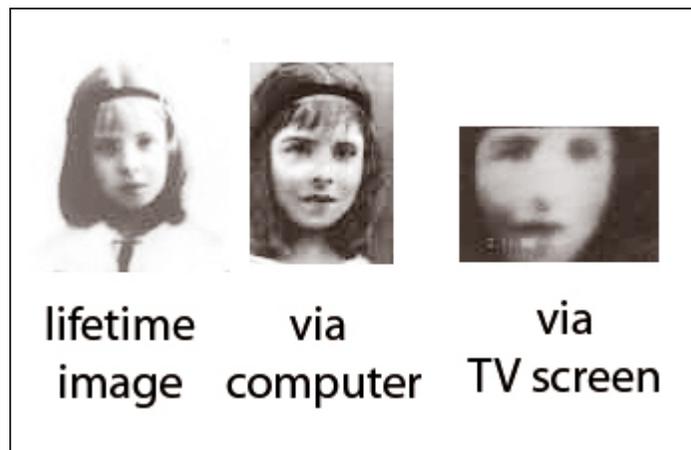

“Yes.”

“Had the Pre-cataceans with their high psychic ability developed a relationship with You?”

“Yes.”

“Was this the reason that the Bellatrix Dinoid /Reptoids [and Sirian partners] wanted to destroy the Pre-cataceans?”

“Yes.”

The Instrumental Trans Communication [ITC] Web site contains images of humans that have been captured from the astral dimension [4D Marduk]. This image of Anne Guigne of France was captured by ITC researchers Maggy and Jules Harsch-Fischbach in Luxembourg. Anne died in 1922 at age 11. She's shown here during lifetime, and also in spirit, via computer and TV. For more details, see: www.worlditc.org.

“Does this chain of manipulation go up any further than the Sirians?”

“Yes.”

“Can I find any information about this?”

“Yes.”

“Were You ‘Earth’s Spiritual Hierarchy that the Pre-cataceans consulted?’”

“Yes.”

“Was the primitive aquatic species that the Sirians found in the Vega system—the pre-Nibiruans? [before the Sirians modified their genetics].

“Yes.”

BELLATRIX DINOID/REPTOIDS

Exopaedia [formerly Hyperbase, www.exopaedia.org], written by therapists who work with abductees, provides the following information about the Bellatrix Dinoid/Reptoids:

This system is the home of dinoid and reptoid civilizations, or, to put it in other words, of lizzies and reptilians. It is also said to be the home of several species of Greys. (Types A, B and C. Type C is apparently only found in the Bellatrix and Rigel systems).

The negative image people sometimes associate with Orion mainly has to do with Bellatrix (which is Latin for ‘fighter’ or ‘warrior’). The lizzie-inhabitants of the Bellatrix system focus upon expansion and colonization. Other keywords to describe its civilization are oppression and control. They have an extremely advanced technology. Stories about abductions and implants as controlling devices that are linked to Orion, nearly always have to do with Bellatrix.

The Branton material mentions “a huge colony of hybrid Reptilian-insectoid mercenaries, the result of Reticulan genetic engineering” in the Bellatrix system. It also mentions a lizard-like race, “snake men,” as well as a dinoid civilization.

Bellatrix also functions as a link between the Orion Empire and the Draconian Empire.

Michael Salla’s “Typology of Extraterrestrial Races: According to Alex Collier and the Andromedans” supplies additional information about the Draconians:

Alpha Draconians have colonized many star systems and have created many races by genetically altering the life forms that they encountered.

The most densely populated area of sub-races of Draconia is the constellation of Orion, Rigel, and the star system known as Capella. Here lies a very dangerous part of the Universe for human beings. The mind set or consciousness of the majority of the races in this region is service to self and as such they are always subverting, invading and manipulating less advanced races using their technology for control and domination.

They are taught that Draconian history of the Great Galactic War.

The version or opinion that the humans were at fault for the invasion of the Universe and how we selfishly wanted the Draconian race to starve and struggle for the basic materials for their society to exist. Therefore they are brain-washed at a young age just like we humans have done to our younger generations by all human races in the galaxy.

The Andromedans say that Draconians believe that this universe was here for them - that their history teaches them that they were left here to rule it. But, when they started traveling, [4 billion years ago] they ran across other races. They were able to conquer many of those races through genetic manipulation.

Now, our government, the United States government, the New World Order - whatever you want to call it - wants to implant everybody. From the Andromedan perspective that means ownership.

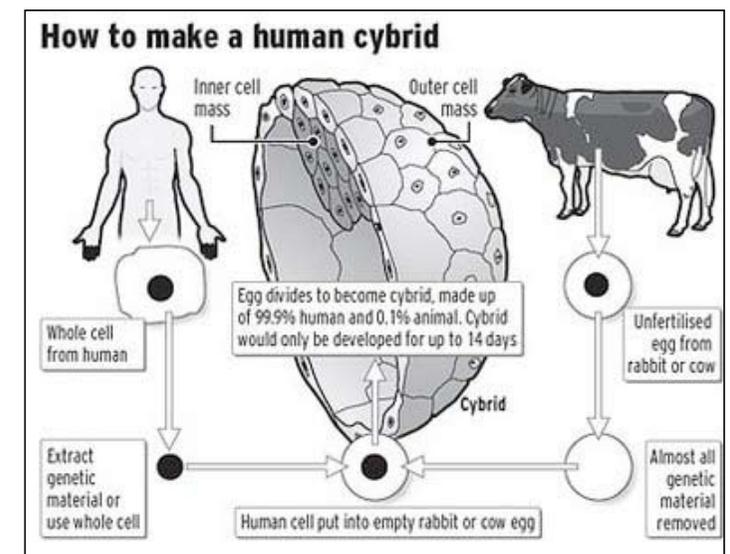

Extraterrestrial don't want to bother with that stuff, since that is not permanent. Extraterrestrials value genetics. What they do is they come in, conquer a race and genetically alter it. From that moment on, that race is genetically altered.

To find how much of Exopaedia’s Dinoid/Reptoid section and Michael Salla’s “Typology of Extraterrestrial Races” article is true, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Is the Exopaedia information about the Bellatrix Dinoid/Reptoids correct?”

In September, 2007, Britain’s Human Fertilisation and Embryology Authority gave the go-ahead for the creation of human-animal embryos [called cybrid] for research. Aside from the moral issues, there are varying degrees of interspecies incompatibility between mitochondrial and nuclear functions.

“Yes.”

“Does the line that says, “Bellatrix functions as a link between the Orion Empire and the Draconian Empire imply that the Sirians, Orions [and Nibiruan Aninnaki] and Draconians are all partners?”

“Yes.”

My intuition told me to investigate the “Great Galactic War” to search for more information about possible alliances between the Sirians, Nibiruan/Anunnaki and the Draconians.

GALACTIC WARS

The Exopaedia site says that Galactic Wars broke out in the constellation of Lyra following space exploration by humanoid races approximately 22 million years ago and that the first clashes were between the Lyrans and the Vegans. The site says that encounters with non-humanoid races followed and territorial conflicts erupted. The wars lasted for millions of years and as ideologies were blended into the conflict, two groups emerged:

- The Federation
- The Empires
[Draconians and Orions]

The constellation of Orion became the battlefield and because of this, the Galactic Wars are often called the Orion Wars.

Exopaedia’s information about the Orion Wars says the groups became polarized around the concepts of service to others [STO] and service to self [STS].

Questions for God that I’ve included in this section reveal that although this much is true, Exopaedia’s information gets clouded when they try to explain the difference between service-to-others and service-to-self:

Initially the philosophy of service to self implied that when everybody takes care of him- or herself, then the whole is taken care of, too. But

The Exopaedia site says that movies like Star Wars tap our collective memory about the real Galactic Wars that engulfed our galaxy for millions of years.

Star Wars’ Planet Tatooine, with its two suns, is the destination where R2-D2, along with his counterpart C-3PO, escape at the beginning of the trilogy. It’s also a plot location in Episode IV: A New Hope. At the start of the trilogy, Princess Leia Organa has been captured by “Lord Darth Vader” after hiding plans of the massive Death Star inside R2-D2. On Tatooine, the droids are purchased by Luke Skywalker [son of Anakin] and his step-uncle and aunt. While cleaning R2-D2, Luke accidentally triggers a message from Princess Leia, who asks for assistance from Obi-Wan [May 25, 1977].

gradually it changed into service to self, if necessary, at the expense of others—which results in “victimizers” and “victims.”

To clarify the difference between service-to-other and service-to-self, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Is Exopaedia’s definition of service-to-self correct?”

“No.”

“Is the whole taken care of when everyone takes care of him or herself?”

“No.”

“Is the whole taken care of—with service-to-others?”

“Yes.”

“Do victims and victimizers emerge in a world of beings who only take care of themselves?”

“Yes.”

“Do victims and victimizers emerge in a world of beings who take care of others?”

“No.”

THE REBELS AND MERLIN

Exopaedia also includes information about a third group that it calls the Rebels consisting of races that had been conquered by the Draconian/Orions who rebelled and aligned with groups who broke away from the Federation. Although this third group shifted the balance of power, the shift did not end the Wars. Exopaedia says a “Merlin” or a “Merlin archetype” helped end the Wars and calls Merlin an “unexpected development:”

Within the ranks of the rebels, he [Merlin] grew up as a young boy with remarkable talents. When he reached manhood, he started teaching about universal spiritual laws, about unconditional love and forgiveness. He pointed out that all parties, including the rebels, were still caught in a dualistic and polarised perception of reality, that this dualistic perception is an illusion and that only unconditional love and forgiveness would be able to end the conflict.

And so Merlin succeeded at first in changing the mind sets of the rebels, and soon afterwards those of the Federation and the Empires, too. He taught them to transcend and value their differences. Peace agreements between parties were reached, and with this peace and the change of mind sets came a dramatic increase in awareness and raise in consciousness. Entire masses of people ascended into a higher dimensional reality.

To clarify whether Exopaedia’s information about Merlin is correct, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Did Merlin or a Merlin archetype emerge during the Orion Wars—and teach spiritual laws?”

“Yes.”

“Was his name Merlin?”

“No.”

“Does it matter if we know his real name?”

“No.”

“Did he teach unconditional love and forgiveness?”

“No.”

“Did he teach The Law of One?”

“Yes.”

Territorial conflicts seem to be emerging again—over claims about humanity’s origins. Sitchin’s timeline describes Earth’s mammalian Precatacean species with psychic abilities [who developed a close relationship with God]. Several humanoid races are skewing the story by placing humanity’s origin’s on Lyra. If these groups are collaborating, a partial thread of this story may be true. If Sitchin’s work is correct [which will be questions for God], he says the Sirians genetically altered a primitive aquatic species from the fourth planet of the Vega System. Note: Lyra is the fourth planet orbiting around a star known as Vega.

ANDROMEDAN COUNCIL SPIN

In an interview with Michael Salla,

Alex Collier [speaking for the Andromedan Council] says the human race originated on Lyra. [Note: Salla’s interview may be found at www.galacticdiplomacy.com].

Based on the age of the Suns and the planets in our galaxy, it was decided that the human life form was to be created on Lyra.

Salla does not stop Collier and say “Who decided?” In Sitchin’s timeline, it was a primitive aquatic species [later called the Nibiruan] who grew up on Lyra.

SIRIAN SPIN

Sheldon Nidle is a California-based psychic and author of several books who has been contacted by the Sirians [and the Galactic Federation] since shortly after his birth. In his book, You Are Becoming a Galactic Human, [1994], who he channeled on behalf of the Galactic Federation and a being named Washta, he says that humans originated in the Vegan system of the Lyran Constellation.

Note: The Galactic Federation is a very real Reptilian galactic organization with a field office in a suburb of Kansas City, Missouri! See: Nibiruan Council's Spin.

NIBIRUAN COUNCIL'S SPINE

Jelaila Starr, who runs the 3D Nibiruan Council field office for the Greater Nibiruan Council, confirms the connection between Nibiru and the Constellation of Lyra mentioned in Sitchen's time line. In Genesis of Man, June Austin, relays what Jelaila has had to say about human origins:

Humans originally evolved on a Planet named Avyon within the Vegan star system of the constellation of Lyra. They were then moved to Sirius B, where they were split into two groups; those with and without physical form. The physical ones went to live on Orion, alongside the Reptiles, while the etheric ones were sent to a Planet named Tiamat. A war with the Reptiles later caused the destruction of Tiamat. The upper half became Earth, while the lower half became fragmented into the Asteroid Belt.

PLEIADIAN SPIN

Lyssa Royal, who channels the Pleiadians, says Lyra is considered the "birthplace" or the "womb" of the humanoid race [she does not say 'human'] within Earth's area in the Milky Way and that all subspecies such as Sirians, Orions, Earth/Terrans, Pleiadians, Vegans, Zeta Reticuli, Centaurians, Altairians (and many lesser-known groups) are descendants of the Lyran races. Lyssa's site, titled "Royal Priest Research," is located at www.lyssaroyal.com.

To clarify whether Andromedan Council, Sirian, Nibiruan Council or Pleiadian spin is correct, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

"Yes."

"Did any of the human race grow up on Lyra?"

"No."

"Are neighboring Humanoid and Reptilian races [in the Milky Way] skewing the story of the aquatic race's origins?"

"Yes."

"Are they stretching the truth due to the fact that the Sirians altered the Lyran aquatic species DNA?"

"Yes."

"Has the second half of the story—or, the combining with human DNA been completely altered?"

"Yes."

"Is the timing meant to coincide with human Ascension?"

"Yes."

"Are all of these groups interested in human DNA?"

"Yes."

"Does the Nibiruan Council give this deception away with their offer of a 'DNA de-coding service listed on their Web site?'"

"Yes."

"Have the Humanoid and Reptilian races who are interested in human DNA been infiltrating Earth for a long time?"

"Yes."

The Nibiruan Council has an Earth office in a suburb of Kansas City, Missouri. Their Web site lists a "DNA re-coding service" and says that candidates for the Ascension must be able to "value the Dark in all ways."

“Is there evidence of this infiltration?”
“Yes.”

NIBIRU IS NOT A PLANET

If Nibiru is a starship and not a planet, then the Nibiruans are not really from Nibiru. Dan Winter, who wrote an article called, “Thoth Identity Links Anunnaki to Orion and Rigel” calls Thoth a “human DNA defender” and says that Thoth/Hermes [ENKI’s son] is from Rigel:

Rarely do we compare specific detailed information which explains that he (also named Quetzalcoatl - THE subject of “Tutankhamon Prophecies”), was the son of ENKI, brother to Marduk /Ra - thus clearly the pride of the human DNA defenders part of the Anunnaki fleet.

Thoth states unequivocally that he is of PURE ORION / Rigelian descent. Putting these 2 notions together may give us new insight into the Anunnaki Origins in the Orion sector,

To clarify whether Dan Winter’s information about Thoth and the Nibiruans is correct, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Are the Nibiruans from Orion/Rigel?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Orion/Rigelians evolve from the aquatic race from Lyra [fourth planet in the Lyran system] that the Sirians ‘vastly’ modified to become what they called a ‘guardian race?’”

“Yes.”

“Is Peter Farley correct when he says this race is 5th dimensional with 12th dimensional capabilities?”

“Yes.”

“Were these capabilities given to the Orion/Rigelians through gene splicing with their own DNA?”

“Yes.”

“Did this gene splicing combine Sirian etheric DNA with the DNA of the aquatic species?”

“Yes.”

“Is Sirian/Lyran gene splicing similar to the Neanderthal human/Orion/Rigelian splicing that ENKI performed to produce a Homo Sapien?”

“No.”

“Was the ENKI splicing done with Neanderthal genes?”

“No.”

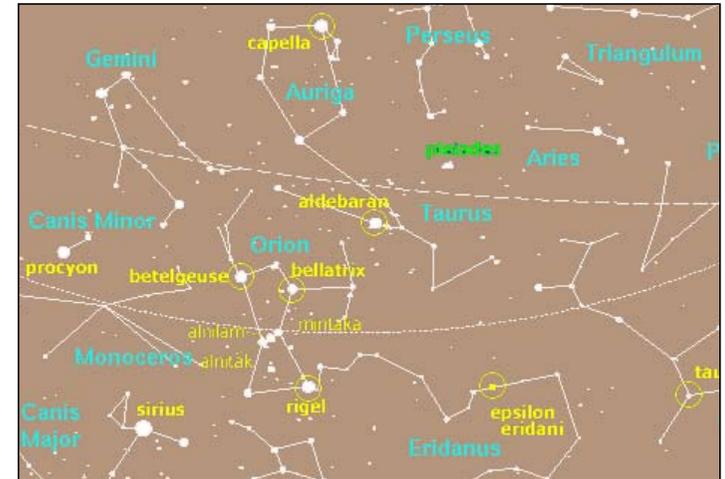

“Was it done with the more advanced Cetacean genes?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Orion/Rigelians know of the advanced Cetacean genes because the Dinoid/Reptoids co-existed with them on Earth for over 8 million years?”

“Yes.”

“Were there any Orion/Rigelian genes in the mix?”

Exopaedia says Rigel is the second largest star in the constellation of Orion and that Rigel was originally inhabited by a humanoid race of ‘Blonds.’ (per Matthew, as well as the late Bill Cooper).

Notes:

- Exopaedia connects “Tall Whites” and “Souce A:” April 2008, ‘Source A,’ who leaked information about a secret UN meeting on extraterrestrials, referred to Tall Whites as one of the races he was aware of.
- William Cooper [1943 - 2001], who wrote Behold a Pale Horse, was a well-known American UFOlogist and radio broadcaster who died in a dispute with the police near his home in Arizona.
- Matthew is an extraterrestrial who speaks to his mother Suzy through the voice of her son Matthew Ward who died at the age of 17 on April 17, 1980 [www.matthewbooks.com]. Topics listed on the site include: Reptilian commander’s message, NESARA. Thought form transference, ET assistance from space, ascended masters and Planet Nibiru..

“No.”

“Did ENKI combine Cetacean genes with a Neanderthal human?”

“Yes.”

“Was the new race capable of re-producing?”

“Yes.”

“Did Reptilian genetics only show up in humans after Orion/Rigelians began to interbreed with human women?”

“Yes.”

West Africa’s Dogon tribe have a reputation as a race who remember [through their oral history] an association with aquatic space beings who landed near their tribe in Egypt thousands of years ago.

In 1947, French anthropologists Marcel Griaule and Germaine Dieterlen spent a month interviewing the tribe’s oral historian [a Dogon named Ogotemmel]. While most accounts of the Dogon focus on the tribes advanced knowledge of astronomy [the tribe preserved details about Sirius A that modern astronomers did not discover until 1862], one point that is missed is the Dogon’s description of the aliens as “self-fertilizing.”

When Griaule and Dieterlen visited the Dogon, Ogotemmel told the anthropologists that they [the Dogon] were created by beings called the “Nommo” who genetically engineered their DNA. Ogotemmel described the amphibious aliens from the Sirian star system and said that landed on earth with “great noise and wind” on a 3-legged spacecraft, that the aliens combined their DNA. Ogotemmel said that the Nummo resembled serpents, lizards, chameleons and fish, that they had horns, red eyes and sharp, pointed teeth, and that all were self-fertilizing. To find out what part of this story is true, I asked: “Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Did ENKI and the Orion/Rigelians encounter the Dogon in Egypt?”

“Yes.”

“Did ENKI use Dogon DNA in any genetics experiments?”

“Yes.”

“Were the experiments successful?”

“No.”

“Was the Dogon’s description of Orion/Rigelians as ‘self-fertilizing’ correct?”

“Yes.”

“Did ENKI attempt to combine Orion/Rigelian genes with indigenous human genes?”

“Yes.”

“Was it possible for ENKI to cross a self-fertilizing species with a species that is not self-fertilizing [humans] and successfully produce a new re-producing human species?”

“No.”

In his book, Peter Farley describes ENKI’s failed attempts at producing the first Homo Sapien:

...the creation of Adam by the Anunnaki was not a success at first, [...]

The Dogon lived in Egypt when they first encountered space beings thousands of years ago. The Dogon name for the space beings who they say looked like fish, lizards and amphibians is “Nommo.” Their advanced description of the Nommo planet matches Sirius A [a dense, planet-like starship called Nibiru]. Photo: Dogon village in West Africa.

[...] the creations of ENKI—they seem to be neither male nor female as well as neither divine nor human, [were] a kind of android—automatons in human form.

ORION’S LAWS AGAINST DNA CROSSING

In, “Thoth Identity Links Anunnaki to Orion and Rigel” Dan Winter explains that Orion had strict laws “against spontaneous and psychokinetic and unregulated DNA crossing” and wonders why Thoth’s family wanted to rebel against the Orion Queen. He explains that such crossing would fractionate a gene pool “without providing the stellar magnetic environment to re-embed that bloodline back into a Star:

...if you split off a branch [...] of a DNA familial, without the responsibility to provide a sacred temple format to re-integrate the memory of that bloodline back into timelord star families, then you get bad karma (your hand gets slapped by some Galactic Board).

Dan refers to author V.S. Ferguson’s Inanna Returns to explain what this means for a race who performs ‘unregulated gene crossing:’

...this translates into the Anunnaki being told that their present kin are stuck back on Earth till they help harvest redeem the whole errant genepool they started! This becomes a fearsome task.

In his article, Dan makes it clear that he’s convinced that ENKI successfully crossed Orion/Rigelian DNA with Neanderthal human DNA:

It took a fair amount of trickery to get such radically self replicating DNA droids installed on the mining planet, without arousing too much suspicion on the home star.

To find out what part of this story is true, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Does Orion have strict rules against DNA crossing?”

“Yes.”

“Did ENKI rebel against this Orion rule?”

“No.”

“Do the Anunnaki believe that they are stuck on Earth until they help harvest the ‘errant’ genepool?”

“Yes.”

“Is this an impossible task?”

“Yes.”

“Did ENKI split off a DNA familial?”

“No.”

“Is this due to the fact that he used cetacean DNA in the crossing?”

“Yes.”

“Are the Anunnaki stuck on Earth?”

“No.”

“Does this mean they can choose Ascension?”

“Yes.”

Peter Farley’s work explains how the Orion/Rigelians transformed themselves from a self-fertilizing species into a species that can procreate:

...the Anunnaki began the grafting or transplanting of animal sexual organs onto

Human scientists have identified two strands of DNA. They know that there are remnants of ten other strands present—but refer to these as “junk DNA.” The ten strands that are now missing will be regenerated at a “biological Ascension” that is different than a “spiritual Ascension.”

their bodies and taking human females to their temples for sexual intimacy.

Chapter 1 in Genesis refers to Orion/Rigelians as “Nephilim” and uses the word “cohabited:”

The Nephilim were upon the Earth in those days, and thereafter too, when the sons of the Elohim cohabited with the daughters of the Adam and they bore children to them.

To find out if sexual organ transplant is the same as splitting off a DNA familial, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Does sex organ transplant have the same consequences as splitting off a DNA familial?”

“No.”

“Does it require them to stay on the planet?”

“No.”

“Are all of the races who have infiltrated Earth under the impression that the Anunnaki need to stay on Earth?”

“No.”

“Should I name the races and/or groups and You can respond with a Yes or No—to indicate which ones know the truth?”

“Yes.”

“Does the Nibiruan Council know?”

“No.”

“Are there any members of the Nibiruan Council who know?”

“No.”

“Does the entire Andromedan Council know?”

“Yes.”

“Do the Sirians know?”

“Yes.”

“Are there Orions who know?”

“Yes.”

“Do Earth Terran know?”

“Yes.”

“Do the Zeta Reticuli know?”

“No.”

“Do the Centaurians know?”

“No.”

“Do the Altairians know?”

“No.”

“Do the Lyrans know?”

“No.”

“Do the Vegans know?”

“No.”

“Do the Draconians know?”

“Yes.”

“Does inter-species incompatibility cause physical problems?”

“Yes.”

“Have the Anunnaki had physical problems because of the transplanting they have done?”

“Yes.”

“Can You help them with this?”

“Yes.”

“Can You also help them Ascend?”

[BIG] “Yes.”

“Can the e-book provide instructions for them to Ascend?”

“Yes.”

“Should they say the same Prayer that humans are saying?”

“Yes.”

“Will it provide a “God barricade” from those who do not want them to Ascend?”

“Yes.”

THE ENKI PR CAMPAIGN

There is a large-scale campaign that is taking place to introduce ENKI [and his 70+ relatives] to planet Earth. After finding Forest Mystic’s group at MySpace, I typed ENKI into the search fields at Yahoo, Facebook and MySpace and found the following groups that have ENKI in their group description:

- 73 groups at Yahoo
- 73 groups at Facebook
- 25 groups at MySpace

The groups are too numerous to produce here but they contain phrases such as “We love Father ENKI” and all of them seem to have been created from 2005 onward. There’s also a new right-column insert at Wikipedia that’s being used to draw Web visitor attention to a “Fertile Crescent Series” with links to the Mesopotamian gods! To learn whether this campaign is being run by the same group that has told the Anunnaki that they must stay on Earth, I asked:

New right column “Fertile Crescent Series” from Wikipedia pages that contain information about Mesopotamian gods..

“Are You God? [3 variations].”

“Yes.”

“Is the new ENKI PR being created by humans who are being compelled to produce complementary content?”

“Yes.”

“Are these people in the dark about Nibiru’s true history?”

“No.”

“Is there ‘body trespassing’ taking place?”

“Is this similar to what occurs when a medium’s body is controlled by an entity?”

“Yes.”

“Do the body trespassers come and go?”

“Yes.”

“Do the people whose body’s are being used know this is taking place?”

“No.”

“Do they sense something is wrong due to the decisions they’re making?”

“Yes.”

“Is it the same group who have told the Anunnaki that they must stay on the planet?”

“Yes.”

“Does this make discernment difficult?”

“Yes.”

“Is this a good reason to learn how to use a pendulum, connect with You—and ask questions?”

“Yes.”

“Can body trespassing be stopped by reciting the Prayer that’s presented in Chapter 6?”

“Yes.”

MISTAKEN IDENTITIES?

Alongside the ENKI PR campaign, there’s also human confusion about names of god/aliens that have been recorded by both Hebrews and Christians in their Bibles. There’s evidence that the Hebrews [or the “Controllers” See: Chapter 12] knew about humanity’s Mesopotamian origins but deliberately “recast” the myths—or, changed them in order to hide the truth. Two of the most important identities described in an article titled, “The Forbidden Knowledge on the Bible’s Pre-biblical Origins” by Walter Reinhold Wartig Mattfeld y de la Torre. They include Yahweh and Ziusudra of Shuruppak [aka Noah]. Walter begins his article by saying:

...the findings of Science from the fields of Astrophysics, Geology, Archaeology, Anthropology, and Literary Criticism have concluded that the Bible is not the word of God.

Much later in his very lengthy article, he provides the Yahweh’s and Noah’s true identities:

Yahweh is also EN.LIL of Nippur who sought mankind’s destruction in a flood.

Ea/ENKI warned Ziusudra of Shuruppak of the Flood and to save the seed of man and animals by building a great boat.

There are also hints in the images of these two beings that indicates their identities have been confused. Ea/ENKI is symbolized by Aquarius, the 11th sign of the zodiac and is usually depicted with water. In contrast, EN.LIL’s number is fifty and he is usually portrayed as wearing a crown with horns. Note: He is also the god of the weather.

There is only one devil in Judaism and Christianity—a figure with the head of a goat and horns shown on this famous Tarot card from the Rider-Waite deck published in 1909. Tarot’s 52-card deck emerged in the fifteenth century and was used for “divination” a word which means “inspired by god” [notice the little “g”].
