The aliens who have been intruders on Earth for twenty-five million years have a history of continually changing their identities. In Chapter 10, we discovered that ENKI and his family posed as the Greek gods of Mount Olympus. For example:

Zeus = ENKI

Hermes = THOTH

This same family may be posing as dozens of different races to confuse humans who have limited knowledge of extraterrestrials, their history, their supernatural powers or their motives.

Hidden identities and duplicate names have the feeling of a “shell game.”

While a “shell game” is often portrayed as a beginner magician’s trick, it’s really a swindle or confidence trick that’s used to fraud.

SHELL GAMES CAN BE TRACED TO EGYPT

The famous shell game magic trick that involves cups that pass through solid, jump, disappear and reappear, has its roots in ancient Egypt. In Rome, the trick was performed by “conjurers,” a word that refers to a wizard, sorcerer or sorceress who can ‘conjure up’ demons and spirits. Modern magicians call the routine a ‘rite of passage’ and say the required skills include vanishes, appearances, and transpositions as well as ‘audience management.’

ENKI AND EN.LIL'S PARENTS

In Chapter 10, we learned through Peter Farley’s work that ENKI and a team of miners landed on Earth to obtain gold for their home planet around 72,000 years ago. Much later, more Anunnaki arrived, including ENKI’s half brother EN.LIL who was sent by their father, ANU, the ruler of Nibiru.

While searching the Internet for information about ENKI’s family, I stumbled on a post that appeared on the www.godlikeproductions.com conspiracy forum containing a detailed background description of these Anunnaki brothers. A forum member wrote [edited for readability]:

ENKI

A Draconian-Dinoid mix, son of ANU (Dinoid) and TIAMET (a Sirian Water Dragon), 8 -to-10 feet tall, scaly, darker green with brown spots, and a lighter underbelly with spiked projections over his forehead, and down his back running the length of his long tail. He has large brownish wings that are usually collapsed, large clawed hands and feet, a very large, elongated head with spiked teeth.

A fifteenth century painter Hieronymus Bosch 1475 - 1480 created this scene of a magician performing the shell game for a crowd that he titled, “The Conjurer.”

The Wikipedia caption of this public domain image says: “The real trick of this painting is the pickpocket who is working for the conjurer. The pickpocket is robbing the spectator who is bent over.”

The original painting is located in Musée Municipal, in Menton, France, Saint-Germain-en-Laye.—the wealthiest suburb of Paris.

Two additional notes about Hieronymus and the painting:

- According to critics, Hieronymus’ painting are filled with uncanny details of the grotesque and diabolical. Dutch historian Karel van Mander called his work ‘gruesome.’
- Saint-Germain-en-Laye was founded in 1020 when King Robert the Pious founded a convent on the site of the present Church of Saint-Germain. Prior to the French Revolution in 1789, Saint-Germain-en-Laye was a royal town and the Château de Saint-Germain the residence of numerous French monarchs.
- Count of St. Germain, is an 18th-century adventurer/scientist and mystery person who claimed to be centuries old.

*As head/chief scientist/head geneticist/biogeneticist/bioeugenicist of the Anunnaki,
ENKI created many lifeforms on Terra/Earth including:*

- Terrestrial Bioforms, or Humanoids
- Plant Forms [fruit & citrus as well as the pineapple] [...].

EN.LIL

*Half brother to ENKI, son to ANU and a Dinoid mother. He is Dinoid in appearance and is in charge of security forces overseeing projects on Terra/Earth. EN.LIL most often does things 'by the book' and has a very explosive temper.
One might say that when he roars—mountains and volcanoes tremble. However, once he has "let off steam," he can usually be reasoned with. He just has to blow every so often [...].*

Is ENKI IS HALF SIRIAN?

On the godlikeproductions conspiracy site, the forum member said that ENKI's mother is a "Sirian Water Dragon." If this is true, it would make ENKI half Sirian. To check on the background information that was provided in the forum, I asked;

"Are You God? [3 variations].
"Yes."

"Is ANU a Dinoid?"

"Yes."

"Are he and a Sirian Water Dragon named TIAMET ENKI's parents?"

"Yes."

"Is TIAMET the sea serpent called TIAMAT described in the Babylonian clay tablets called Enûma Eliš?"

"Yes."

"Are ANU and a [another] Dinoid spouse EN.LIL's parents?"

"Yes."

"Is ENKI half Sirian?"

"No."

"Is TIAMAT half Reptilian?"

"Yes."

"Does that make THOTH, who is ENKI's son, one-eighth Sirian?"

"Yes."

"Is ANU from the Dinoid-Reptoid group described in Sitchen's timeline?"

"Yes."

"Did You make dragons?"

"No."

I wondered if the Sirians created all dragons due to this quote I found on the David Icke forum:

... Sirius A, the most technologically advanced civilization in the galaxy [...]. It would be a pleasure to meet the mysterious Clear/Transparent People who originally created the Reptilian race and placed them in the Draco star system.

"Did the Sirians create dragon-Reptilians and place them in the Draco system?"

"Yes."

"Have they been interbreeding with Reptilians?"

"Yes."

"Are there any 'etheric' Sirians?"

"Yes."

"Is that why the post on the David Icke forum says, 'clear transparent' people?"

"Yes."

"Is the Andromedan Council Sirian?"

"Yes."

"Does that make them guardians?"

"Yes."

"Did their interbreeding with Dinoid-Reptoids make the Dinoid-Reptoids 'Demi-gods'—meaning beings with half guardian's powers?"

"Yes."

Why are there so many images of dragons and vampires? This Google logo, the day I'm writing this entry, has scales and dragon-like components.

The Exopaedia site says the Draconians are billions of years old:

The Draconians are said to be master geneticists, who have been in the Universe for billions of years.

“Are the Draconians billions of years old?”

“No.”

“Is this another fake story?”

“Yes.”

“Are the advanced and spiritual beings in the Sitchen timeline—the Pre-cataceans?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids flip the ages to make the Pre-cataceans appear to be younger and less evolved?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoid interbreeding take place before the Dinoid-Reptoids arrived on Earth?”

“Yes.”

“Are the Pre-cataceans 35 million years old?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids arrive approximately 8 million years ago?”

“Yes.”

“Was the search for an aquatic species on Lyra, the fourth planet of the Vega system [as described in Sitchen’s timeline?], a cover story used to hide the interbreeding of these two races?”

“Yes.”

“Is the human race dealing with several sub and crossbreed races of this original Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoid group?”

“Yes.”

“Does this include all of the neighboring planet races such as the Pleaidians, the Arcturians, the Lyrans and many others?”

“Yes.”

“Are these sub races very young compared to the Pre-cataceans and original Sirian-Dinoid-Reptoid group?”

“Yes.”

“Do the original Sirians have guardian powers?”

“Yes.”

“Are these powers being used against humans at this time?”

“Yes.”

“Have the Sirians kept a low profile because of their role in the Andromedan Council?”

“Yes.”

SIZING UP EARTH'S ATTACKERS

Alex Collier’s material says the The Andromedan Council is a group of representatives from 143 planetary systems. To check whether the total number of beings with full guardian power [being used against humans] is 143, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].”

“Yes.”

“Does the Andromedan Council have Zecharia Sitchen’s 12th Planet [1976] is the first book in a series called the Earth Chronicles that describes a planet-sized starship called Nibiru. Sitchen is a linguist who translated Sumerian cuneiform tablets in what is now Iraq. He assumed that Nibiru is a “planet” from its description in the Sumerian text. It is actually a circular ship that is the size of Jupiter—large enough to disturb our solar system’s magnetics and cause mass destruction.

143 members?”

“Yes.”

“Would any other guardian councils align themselves with the Andromedan Council in their war against humans?”

“No.”

“Is every other race in Earth’s struggle a “Demi-god” race with half guardian powers?”

“Yes.”

“Are there any incarnated humans with either of these amount of powers?”

“Yes.”

“Is it the Azurite race?”

“Yes.”
 “Does the Azurite race have full guardian power potential?”
 “Yes.”
 “Do any of human Reptilian hybrid races have Demi-god power potential?”
 “Yes.”
 “Can the Azurites activate their guardian powers through You?”
 “Yes.”
 “Can the human Reptilian hybrid races activate their Demi-god power through the guardians?”
 “No.”
 “Can the human Reptilian hybrid races activate their Demi-god power through You?”
 “Yes.”
 “Will they want to in Earth’s upcoming struggle?”
 “Yes.”
 “Were the Pre-cataceans the advanced spiritual ancestors of Lemurians and Atlanteans?”
 “Yes.”

MARDUK, MARS AND THE ASTEROID BELT

If Sitchen was influenced by the Reptilians, it means that more of the timeline may be incorrect. To check on the accuracy of the other details, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].”
 “Yes.”
 “Did the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids and the Pre-cataceans have a war?”

The asteroid belt, with its fragments of what was once the planet Marduk, is located between Mars and Jupiter.

“Yes.”
 “Did the fusion reactor explosion that is described in Sitchen’s timeline take place on Earth?”
 “No.”
 “Did the war take place on Marduk, the planet that many authors describe as the asteroid belt?”
 “Yes.”
 “Did the explosion take place approximately 8 million years ago [as described in Sitchen’s timeline]?”
 “Yes.”
 “Was Earth a separate planet at that time?”
 “No.”
 “Was the fusion reaction large enough to break up the planet into two other planets

[Earth and Mars] as well as fragments?”
 “No.”
 “Was the split due to one of the Nibiru visits?”
 “Yes.”
 “Did the fusion reactor explosion and the Nibiru visit take place at the same time?”
 “Yes.”
 “Is Earth a remnant of Marduk?”
 “Yes.”
 “Was Mars a separate planet before the fusion reactor explosion?”
 “No.”
 “Are Mars and Earth both remnants of Marduk?”
 “Yes.”
 “Did any Pre-cataceans evacuate out of the solar system to Pegasus and Cetus [as described in the Sitchen timeline]?”
 “Yes.”
 “Did any Pre-cataceans ‘alter themselves physically’ [as described in the Sitchen timeline]?”
 “No.”
 “Was this due to genetic manipulation by the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids?”
 “Yes.”
 “Is this group responsible for the Cetacean transition from land to water?”
 “Yes.”

OUR PRE-CATACEAN ANCESTORS

If Pre-cataceans survived the fusion reactor explosion but were separated into groups on Mars and Earth, it would explain the discovery of a large pyramid in the Cydonia region of Mars that is similar to the pyramids at Giza in Egypt.

Since the 1960s, several countries have sent robotic spacecraft to Mars to gather data to try to piece together a history of the planet. Mars missions have been costly because two-thirds of the missions have failed—with some failing before they have even been started. In 1997, Time Magazine journalist Donald Neff used the expression “Great Galactic Ghoul” to refer to a space monster that eats space probes [I’m guessing that Donald is not that far off in his estimate]. The mission failures have also been called the “Mars curse.”

The first successful American Mars “landers” were the Viking 1 [launched August 20, 1975 that arrived on Mars on July 20, 1976] and Viking 2 [launched September 9, 1975 that arrived on Mars on September 3, 1976].

The Viking missions yielded several revealing photographs that contain hints of a former Mars civilization. The photos were ‘misfiled’ at NASA and later discovered by scientists Vincent DiPietro and Gregory Molenaar.

To check whether the Pre-Cataceans survived the fusion reactor explosion, resumed parallel lives on Earth and Pyramid-like structures in the Cydonia region of Mars and a structure that appears to be a face were first captured by the Viking 1 and Viking 2 orbiters in the mid-1970s. Most of the media coverage focused on the ‘face’ that Viking chief scientist Gerry Soffen dismissed as a distortion of light and shadows.

Very little attention has been given to the pyramid that is informally known as the “D & M pyramid,” after Vincent DiPietro and Gregory Molenaar, who discovered the images, while searching through NASA archives.

Mars—and built similar pyramids, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Did any Pre-cataceans survive the fusion reactor explosion on Earth?”

“Yes.”

“Did any Pre-cataceans survive the fusion reactor explosion on Mars?”

“Yes.”

“Did these groups build pyramids on both Earth and Mars?”

“Yes.”

“Are the pyramids at Giza much older than scientists believe?”

“Yes.”

“Were these two groups ever able to communicate?”

“Yes.”

“Did they have advanced technology?”

“Yes.”

“Were they capable of space travel?”

“Yes.”

“Did many leave to join the group who evacuated to Pegasus and Cetus?”

“Yes.”

“Did the group that stayed become the civilizations of Lemuria and Atlantis?”

“Yes.”

“Did these groups have to deal with Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoid manipulation?”

“Yes.”

“Has the manipulation included several Nibiruan visits that has caused floods and other destruction?”

“Yes.”

ICKE'S "BIGGEST SECRET"

Early in his book, The Biggest Secret: The Book That Will Change the World, David Icke describes the work of his California-based friend Brian Desborough, an aerospace scientist who has compiled research on what Icke calls the "connection between the ancient world and the 'brotherhood' manipulation of today."

In Desborough's view, Mars had a 'white race' prior to some form of Mars cataclysm and Earth, in an orbit much closer to the Sun, had a black race of humans with pigmentation that helped them cope with the sun's "fierce" rays. Desborough says that prior to a cataclysm that effected both planets, the white race went to war with the black race to conquer planet Earth. He feels that the war, that took place on Earth, was the 'war of the gods' described in "endless ancient texts." After the Earth cataclysm, the white race, whose home was on Mars, was stranded on Earth without technology—with their home planet devastated.

Brian estimates that the cataclysm was Jupiter's entrance into our solar system that resulted in a collision with an unnamed planet that existed in the orbit between Mars and Jupiter—that's now the asteroid belt. Desborough says that a large part of Jupiter broke off to form what is now Venus, and the path of this large gravitational body destroyed life on Mars. Desborough says that Venus made several trips around Earth before causing a massive tidal wave around 4,800 B.C. and then settled in its present orbit. Icke says Desborough believes that the white Martians were the highly advanced race of the ancient world known as the Phoenicians or the Aryans and that "they began the process of returning to their technological power after the upheavals which destroyed the surface of their own planet and devastated this one."

NASA CONTINUES TO STUDY MARS

Scientists from United States, Italy, Spain, South Korea and Canada—studying data from the Mars Odyssey robotic spacecraft [launched on April 7, 2001 that reached Mars on October 24, 2001], have discovered evidence of oceans that once covered about a third of ancient Mars. The following are highlights from the Odyssey's mission and scientific discoveries:

- The Mars Odyssey, named after the movie, 2001 Space Odyssey, had a Gamma Ray Spectrometer (GRS), onboard.
- On May 28, 2002, NASA reported that Odyssey's GRS had detected large amounts of hydrogen, a sign

Mars Odyssey's Gamma Ray Spectrometer (GRS) has the unique ability to detect elements buried as much as 1/3 meter, or 13 inches, below the surface through the gamma rays they emit. GRS studies led to the 2002 discovery of water-ice near the surface of Mars.

that there must be ice lying within a meter of the planet's surface.

- On July 31, 2008, NASA announced that the Phoenix lander confirmed the presence of water on Mars, as predicted on 2002 by the Odyssey orbiter. The science team is trying to determine whether the water ice ever thaws enough to be available for biology and if carbon-containing chemicals and other raw materials for life are present.

If you notice the dates of the NASA announcements, it took six years for NASA to confirm that there was water on Mars. To find out, if the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids have deliberately sabotaged missions to Mars, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Did the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids sabotage most of the Mars missions?”

“Yes.”

“Is it because they do not want scientists to piece together any of the real history?”

“Yes.”

“Are the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids the real ‘Great Galactic Ghoul?’”

“Yes.”

“Do the artifacts photographed on Mars belong to the Pre-catacean civilization before they evacuated to Pegasus and Cetus?”

“Yes?”

“Is this where the Azurites are from?”

“Yes.”

ARYANS: LANDED OR NEVER LEFT?

Icke and Desborough say the advanced white Martians or Aryans who were stranded on Earth after a space cataclysm became the Phoenicians. Icke says that they were the “brains” behind the Egyptian civilization and built the pyramids on the Giza plateau. He sees them expanding north into Europe and even landing

When the fusion reactor exploded on Marduk:

- Pegasus and Cetus evacuees - Pre-cataceans who evacuated to the Pegasus and Cetus constellations.
- Mars Group - Pre-cataceans who were stranded on the part of Marduk that became Mars. After the explosion, they built pyramids that resemble the pyramids at Giza. The artifacts found at Cydonia belong to this group that eventually left for Pegasus and Cetus.
- Terra/Earth Group - Pre-cataceans who were stranded on the part of Marduk that became Earth. They became the Phoenicians who understood astronomy and mathematics.

in America thousands of years before Columbus. Throughout his The Biggest Secret: The Book That Will Change the World, Icke refers to the white Martians as the Aryan Phoenicians and says they were also responsible for building stone circles at locations such as Stonehenge and Avebury in Wiltshire:

The arrival of the Aryan Phoenicians in Great Britain also corresponds with the building of the great stone circles and observatories like Stonehenge and Avebury in Wiltshire, although some researchers say they were built much earlier. The advanced Phoenician-Sumerians, who had a highly developed knowledge of astronomy, astrology, sacred geometry, mathematics and the Earth's magnetic force line network known as the global energy grid, had all the knowledge necessary to build these great structures [...]. Professor Alexander Thom, Emeritus Professor Engineering Science at Oxford University from 1945 to 1961, discovered that the ancients who built Stonehenge knew about Pythagorean geometric and mathematical principles thousands of years before Pythagoras was born.

Icke and Desborough are correct about some pieces of the cataclysm puzzle. Here are some clarifications:

- The explosion that split Marduk up into two other planets was Nibiru and not Jupiter. The spaceship Nibiru and the planet Jupiter are about the same size.
- The explosion of a fusion reactor set off by the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids helped to split the planet.

Phoenician art on this ceramic vase from the Louvre contains an image of Phoenician prince Cadmus fighting a dragon.

In Phoenician myths, Cadmus was sent by his parents to escort his sister Europa back to Tyre [a Phoenician city in Lebanon] after she was abducted from Phoenicia by Zeus [Phoenicia was on the coast of modern Lebanon].

- The war that Icke and Desborough describe took place on Marduk not Earth and it was a war between the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids and the Pre-Cataceans.
- The war took place approximately eight million years ago.
- Two groups of Pre-Cataceans were stranded on portions of Marduk that became Mars and Earth [some Pre-Cataceans escaped to Pegasus and Cetus].
- The two groups on Mars and Earth built similar pyramid structures.
- Pre-Cataceans on Mars eventually left for Pegasus and Cetus leaving remnants of their civilization behind.
- Pre-Cataceans on Earth were Phoenician and some were Egyptian. Eventually, Pre-Cataceans from Pegasus and Cetus returned and transported survivors who wished to leave Earth.

- ENKI mixed Pre-Cataceans DNA with a Neanderthal human DNA to produce a Homo Sapien species as well as aquatic species that were ancestors of the present day Cetaceans. The Homo Sapien/Catacean hybrid humans interbred with Reptilians throughout Earth's history to produce many sub and crossbreed races that David Icke describes in his book.

To check on the accuracy of the cataclysm puzzle, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Is the planet [or starship] that Desborough thinks was Jupiter—Niburu?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids blow up a fusion reactor?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids escape in the Nibiru starship?”

“Yes.”

“Did the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids expect anyone to survive?”

“No.”

“Did the Pre-Cataceans survive because of their guardian-level powers, their development and their connection to God?”

“Yes.”

“Is that why they were able to evacuate the planet in time?”

“Yes.”

“And the groups who survived on Earth and Mars—were groups who did not want to leave?”

“Yes.”

“Has Nibiru made a trip [near the Ascension] for the last 8 million years?”

“Yes.”

“Is that over 300 Ascension cycles?”

“Yes.”

“Were ENKI's ancestors also geneticists who brought the starship to Earth?”

“Yes.”

“Did ENKI begin his genetics work on Earth 72,000 years ago?”

“Yes.”

“Do Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids refer to their trips as ‘harvests?’”

“Yes.”

“Do they have a method of capturing DNA before someone is killed?”

“Yes.”

“Do the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids want to kill everyone on the planet?”

“No.”

“Do they want to kill most of Earth's population?”

“Yes.”

“Does this include the walk-ins?”

“Yes.”

“Is it the reason that one of ENKI's titles is bioeugenicist?”

“Yes.”

SIRIAN HELP WITH A LARGER ASCENSION

In the 1990s, Reptilian authors told readers that Pleaidians were humans' "parents." In 2000, Drunvalo Melchizedek introduced the Sirians as humans' father and Nephilim as their mother in his Ancient Secret of the Flower of Life, Volume 2.

Spokespeople from the Sirian and Anunnaki races have simplified the human origin story even further with a new story that says everyone is from the same place—Lyra [Alex Collier for the Sirian Andromedan Council, Sheldon Nidle for the Reptilian Galactic Federation, Jelaila Star for the Reptilian Nibiruan Council and Lyssa Royal for the Pleiadians]. Lyssa Royal, who channels the Pleiadians, says that subspecies such as Sirians, Orions,

Up until 2000, several New Age authors said humans are related to the Pleaidians. The Pleiades is a star cluster in the constellation of Taurus. Image Source: NASA/ESA/AURA/Caltech.

Earth/Terrans, Pleiadians, Vegans, Zeta Reticuli, Centaurians, Altairians (and many lesser-known groups) are descendants of the Lyran races.

In all likelihood, the new spin is due to a Sirian-Anunnaki partnership due to a need for advanced Sirian technology and the Anunnaki's need for assistance with a larger Earth population.

BILLIONS OF ALIEN WALK-INS

As I thought about the 90% STS and 10% STO figures in Chapter 1, it occurred to me that the high percentage of STS energy may be due to the walk-in population. Given that there should be a minimal 50-50% balance of STO and STS, Earth's STS percentage is about forty percent larger than normal.

As of July 21, 2009, Earth's population was estimated by the U.S. Census Bureau to be 6.772 billion. Forty percent of 6.772 billion is 2.7 billion—an astronomical figure. Thinking that Earth's "extra" STS energy may be explained by a very large number of alien walk-ins, I asked:

"Are You God? [3 variations]."

"Yes."

"Have 2.7 billion aliens walked-in?"

"Yes."

"Are all of the aliens in human bodies?"

"No."

"Are there any aliens in animals'

bodies?"

"Yes."

"Do they want to be in human bodies?"

"Yes."

"Does this explain some of my energy attacks?"

"Yes."

"Is the total number [of alien/animal walk-ins] on the planet similar to the number that has walked-in to human bodies?"

"Yes."

David Hawkins' description of how higher level consciousness has more weight than lower level consciousness would explain why the total number of walk-ins [into human and animal bodies] seems to be a number greater than 90%. Hawkins is an American psychiatrist who uses applied kinesiology to distinguish truth or falsity in any statement and his Power vs. Force [1995], describes his twenty-year study of consciousness levels on the planet.

"Have these aliens been promised DNA?"

"Yes."

"Do the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids plan to give them DNA?"

"No."

"Are the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids using these aliens to manipulate humans?"

"Yes."

"Is there a plan to evacuate the walk-ins?"

"No."

“Can all walk-ins Ascend separately and safely if they make a commitment to The Law of One and say Prayers [mostly protection] for the Ascension?”

“Yes.”

“Have alien walk-ins occurred throughout the world?”

“Yes.”

“Are they evenly spread out across the planet?”

“No.”

Edgar Cayce said that many former Atlanteans would be born after 1945 specifically in North America. As a result, I asked:

“Are most of the walk-ins—in North America?”

“Yes.”

“Are most Azurites in North America?”

“Yes.”

Are aliens particularly interested in Azurite DNA?”

“Yes.”

“Can they access Azurite DNA?”

“No.”

“Have walk-ins been used to help determine who is an Azurite?”

“Yes.”

FIFTY-MILE SIRIAN STARSHIP

Drunvalo's Ancient Secret of the Flower of Life, Volume 2 says that there is a fifty-mile Sirian mothership with a crew of more than 300 Sirians just outside Earth.

Edgar Cayce said that many former Atlanteans would be born after 1945—specifically in North America where there are dense numbers of Walk-ins taking place..

In stages throughout his book, Drunvalo refers to control of human consciousness—first through a Christ consciousness grid that was geomantically created around the planet using a system of sacred temples and special sites. He says this geomantic grid was approved by a 48-member Galactic Command but built by the Great White Brotherhood.

Apparently, the grid did not offer enough control and a new project to control humanity's consciousness was needed. The cover-story that the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids used to explain the need for more work on human consciousness was a fusion reaction that threatened all human life on Earth. Drunvalo explains that in August 1972, the Sun was going to expand from a hydrogen Sun into a helium sun. And, that helium build-up would cause a fusion reaction forming carbon, a reaction that would cause humans to 'burn up' unless they had Christ consciousness. He says that the Sirians took initiative to “save” us and had their project approved by the Galactic Command that is most likely the same group of pretender Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids. Drunvalo writes:

In the middle of the 1700s, after almost 13,000 years of this experiment to create the Christ consciousness grid, it became clear to our physical father, the Sirians, that we were not going to make it.[...]. The Sirians and the Nephilim, our father and mother, both wanted to help, but our father was much more advanced in knowledge and understanding [...]. So the Sirians took the initiative to find a way to save humanity. The problem was, there was no solution known in the whole galaxy.

The helium and hydrogen expansion that Drunvalo describes sounds like solar flares that scientists say are not harmful. There was a very large solar flare in August, 1972 that the Sirians may have been able to predict with a study of time lines—as part of their cover story. To check on the accuracy of the “Sirian's initiative to save us” story, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Did the helium build-up in Drunvalo's story refer to a solar flare?”

“Yes.”

“Was this a cover story that was used to camouflage a Sirian technology installation on Earth in August, 1972?”

“Yes.”

“Is there a lot more to this story?”

“Yes.”

SIRIAN AND ANUNNAKI PARTNERS

Drunvalo says the Sirians searched for 250 years and found a being with an idea that they presented to the “Galactic Command.” It was to be an experiment performed by “Thoth, the ascended masters of the human race, the Great White Brotherhood and the spiritual hierarchy of the galaxy.”

Drunvalo said all humans would be destroyed if this group of collaborators did not perform their experiment. As a result, “permission was given” to build a large black, cigar-shaped ship and park it just outside Earth’s “membrane.” The collaborators also placed objects at “eight remote corners of Earth’s tetrahedral lightbody in the 4th dimension” and a laser beam sent energy “4th dimensionally to one of the objects that then responded with a red, blue or green beam to each of the remaining objects.” Drunvalo writes [describing the laser]:

It entered into the original eight cells at the center of each human, and from there outward to each human’s star tetrahedral field. This last step created a unique holographic field around each human being giving the Sirians a means to alter human consciousness. They could both protect and change consciousness without the humans’ knowing it.

This also created a holographic field around the Earth that re-created the outer reality of space [...]. This sample field was to protect the Earth from the deadly expansion of the Sun [...].

At the same time, they [Sirians] could gain control of human thoughts and feelings and project images into our immediate surroundings [...]. The overall system would allow complete protection while this change was taking place without the humans knowing it, and allow the complete alternation of our DNA if and when it became necessary.

AUGUST 7, 1972

Drunvalo says the “peak” of the “Sirian Experiment” occurred on August 7, 1972, and calls it a “big day.” In a section in his book called “April 7, 1972, and the Successful Aftermath” he writes:

The big day came—August 7, 1972. The peak of the event actually occurred over a period of about seven days, but the seventh of August was its greatest expansion. What really happened on that day we humans will not know until we reach Christ consciousness.

I typed “August 7, 1972” into Google and links to several scientific papers about a “Great Solar Flare” were returned. The Big Bear Solar Observatory (BBSO) in Big Bear Lake, California recorded a video of the solar flare that took place on August 7, 1972. To learn more, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Did the Sirian [and Dinoid/Reptoid] Experiment effect the Sun?”

In his book, Ancient Secret of the Flower of Life, Drunvalo Melchisedek says that in 1972, the Sirians beamed red, blue and green light to objects in Earth’s 4th dimension that then traveled to Earth’s core and the core of all humans. He says this beaming created a holographic field that the Sirians still control #8596786.

Google images has numerous still images of solar flares like this one from NASA. Solar flares occur occasionally in solar cycles. In a report about solar flare radiation, the Health Physics Society reported that radiation exposure from solar flares is low —even for airline personnel during air travel.

“No.”

“Did the solar flare have a negative effect on Prayers said at Sun Rise and Sun Down?”

“Yes.”

“Is the Sun an energy link to the Galactic core?”

“Yes.”

In Chapter 12, there is an illustration of the Milky Way galaxy. The Sun is the center of our solar system but it revolves around the center of a larger Milky Way galaxy.

“Do the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids also have the ability to control Prayer through the hologram that they built?”

“Yes.”

“Can this effect be reversed with Prayer?”

“Yes.”

“Have the Sirians used the expression Christ consciousness to refer to the Ascension?”

“Yes.”

REALITY CHOICES?

Drunvalo mentions “reality choices” that the Sirians [Dinoid/Reptoids] provide through what is implied is their hologram. I wondered if the choices had anything to do with “zaps.” Drunvalo also mentions Ascension in this section titled, “The Return of Free Will and Unexpected Positive Consequences” [Chapter 17]:

As progress became apparent, the Sirians began to allow free will choices. However, if we did not respond with the right choice, the Sirians would continue to give us a similar set of reality choices over and over again until we learned the spiritual lesson [...].

All this was timed to another event, which was timed to the completion of the Christ grid that the Great White Brotherhood was focusing on. It was completed in 1989, which made it possible for humans to actually ascend to the next dimension world.

To learn more about the ‘reality’ choices in the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoid hologram, I asked:

“Are You God? [3 variations].

“Yes.”

“Do the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoid ‘reality choices have anything to do with zapping?”

“Yes.”

“Do the Sirian/Dinoid/Reptoids intend to use their technology to harvest DNA at the Ascension?”

“Yes.”

“Is that what the White Brotherhood tried to do with their Christ consciousness grid?”

Drunvalo refers to humanity’s connection to God but the information is distorted. At the end of Chapter 17, he says that the idea in a distant galaxy that triggered the Sirian [Dinoid/Reptoid] Experiment “was contained within original Reality” and that it was from God. I did not need to ask God if this was true.

SIRIANS’ NEED FOR SPIRITUAL HELP

The only time Drunvalo appears to be critical of the Sirian [Dinoid/Reptoid] “experiment” occurs in Chapter 17 when he relays details of his three day visit to the Sirian ship parked outside of Earth’s “membrane.” He says that in 1972, angels approached him while he was sitting with his family and he was told to go into a room by himself. There, they told him that they would be accompanying him to deep space. He describes a trip to a zone outside Earth's membrane, located 440,00 miles away— to the cigar shaped ship that is 50 miles long.

Inside the Sirian ship, Drunvalo met very tall humanoids who told him they were Sirians. He said he spent his three days onboard the ship observing Sirian technology. After his visit, he says the angels who took him to the ship told him that although the Sirians appeared to be a super advanced race, they needed spiritual help. In a section titled, "Technology Reconsidered" he writes;

The bottom line of this experience was that the angels wanted me to give up technology and concentrate on pre consciousness as the way to remember God. I heard all that. I really thought I understood the lesson they were giving me. Then as time went on, I completely forgot it. It's such a human thing to do!

SIRIANS HAVE FORGOTTEN ABOUT GOD

To check the details in Drunvalo's story—especially the part about the angels and their warning that the Sirians have forgotten about God, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

"Yes."

"Is there a 50 mile-long Sirian ship parked 440,000 miles away?"

"Yes."

The title of this year's mystery-thriller, Angels and Demons, tells us that the Illuminati doesn't really exist.

In his book about theology in popular culture, Kevin Cobb notes that there was a surge of attention to angels in popular culture in the 1990s. Examples include TV shows like Touched by an Angel (CBS), Promised Land (CBS) and Wonderfalls (Fox). Movies included Michael [1996], The Preacher's Wife [1996], and City of Angels [1998].

"Is this a base that they use to control Earth?"

"Yes."

"Is this their base where they have technology to scan and study time lines?"

"Yes."

Does their timeline technology have a visual component?"

"Yes."

In Chapter 9, we learned that there are no "angels." Instead, there are "angel-posers" who are really aliens. To learn details about the beings who took

Drunvalo to visit the Sirian ship, I asked:

Are You God? [3 variations].

"Yes."

"Did Drunvalo visit the Sirian ship?"

"Yes."

"Was he escorted by Sirian [Dinoid/ Reptoids]?"

"Yes."

"Were the aliens posing as angels?"

"Yes."

"Did they tell him that the Sirian race needs spiritual help?"

"No."

"Was it You who told him?"

"Yes."

"Did You want Drunvalo to give up technology?"

"No."

"Does technology lead a person away from God?"

"No."

"Was that interpretation implanted by the Sirians [Dinoid/Reptoids]?"

"Yes."

"Was he blocked from remembering You?"

"Yes."

"Did You tell him that the Sirians need spiritual help?"

"Yes."

"Do the Sirians know that they need spiritual help?"

"Yes."

"Will You help them?"

"Yes."
